

Hiking without luggage “On the trail of the red deer”

Its dense spruce and pine forests combined with breath-taking views over the Black Forest valleys and the Rhine plains make the northern section of the Black Forest an ideal destination for hiking enthusiasts.

The calm mountain lakes, romantic gorges, waterfalls and protected nature reserves make the area in and around Freudenstadt a popular destination for hiking holidays and relaxing walks. The clear and fresh air, the abundance of sunshine and the lack of fog are characteristics of this region making it the ideal setting for the holiday of a lifetime. A variety of well developed hiking and cycle routes, panoramic roads and highways, mean that the beauty of nature is within easy reach.

In the midst of this charming countryside is Freudenstadt – a hikers' paradise.

For those of you who don't fancy lugging your rucksacks from place to place, there is an easier option – the Black Forest hiking tour without luggage entitled “On the trail of the red deer”.

Follow the jumping red deer, the symbol of this interesting hiking route, for an adventurous day's hiking that will leave you feeling physically and mentally invigorated. On this route you can hike around 14 to 23 km a day and stay at excellent hotels.

Your luggage will arrive at your hotel before you do.

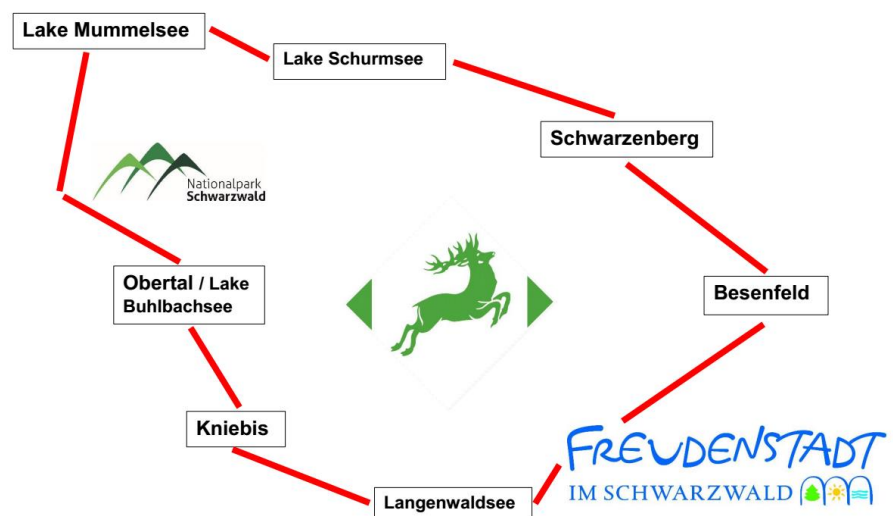

Relax in the sauna or swimming pool and get in shape for the following day's hiking. The well-planned hiking trails lead you through the most beautiful nature reserves in the northern Black Forest. After a good meal from the Baden/Swabian menu accompanied by a glass of fine wine, you will soon forget about any aching muscles and in the morning you will wake up refreshed and ready for the next stretch of your hike.

Around Freudenstadt and the Black Forest National Park, there is a variety of tours to satisfy any hiking enthusiast. The entire route covers 110 kilometres and can be easily completed in six days. Shorter stays are also possible.
